

William Heath Beasley

April 30, 1981 - January 3, 2024

Mr. William Heath “Fatt Bread” Beasley entered into rest 01/03/2024. Heath was born to Barbara and Timothy Beasley on a Thursday afternoon, the 30th of April 1981 in Warner Robins Georgia.

As a Master Barber, he was known as “Uncle Heath” by many of the kids and teens that frequented his shop. He was a friend to everyone, and frequently joked that he was “Augusta famous.” Heath was known and loved in the community and was always there when a friend needed a shoulder to cry on, or advice in a sticky situation. When he wasn’t cutting hair, he was volunteering for his church, cutting the hair of the homeless or those who couldn’t afford it. Most notable of his qualities was his overwhelming love of life and for those around him. When he wasn’t at his shop, he loved fishing, listening to music, and spending time with his family.

He was preceded in death by his loving father, William Timothy Beasley.

He is survived by his mother, Barbara Beasley; his sister, Heidi Beasley-Urschel (Danny); his four children, Ariel, Hannah, Hailie, and Hayes Beasley; granddaughter, Scarlett Victoria Pope and two nieces and a nephew, Cali, Makayla, and Daniel Beasley.
