“ It is sad that we will not have our random phone call visits, but I can treasure memories until we meet again in our heavenly home. I don't know what I will miss most, your great big smile or your laughter. We shared a lot of both through the years. You had a great big heart to go with your great smile and I will always love you little brother. "Sis"

“ To the man who gave me the biggest brightest smile, who told me I was the smartest and most beautiful girl, who told me I could do anything, who loved reading his Sunday paper, who worked so hard so I didn't want for anything, who was so very proud of his first grandson Hunter, who when he met the twins for the first time couldn't get over how much Addison looked like me, YOU will be missed more than you will ever know. I'll miss those phone calls from the road telling me how you missed and was proud of me. I'll miss the calls on my birthday singing happy happy birthday baby. Please give Uncle Chris, Popa Holmes, GiGi, Grandma Taylor, Popa Taylor, Aunt Lucia and Aunt Nancy BIG HUGS for me. Thank you for coming to Addison today and helping me to let you go and rest. Hunter, Addison and Jaxon will have a guardian angel. I know you are proud of them all. You will always be with me every time I look in the mirror. Your baby girl will see you again one day...I love you daddy!
