

Woodrow "Woody" W. Keel Jr.

January 18, 1943 - July 20, 2024

Woodrow "Woody" W. Keel Jr, 81, entered into rest on Saturday, July 20, 2024, at his home surrounded by family.

Graveside services will be held from Blythe Baptist Church at 10:00 AM on Wednesday, 24, 2024, with Reverend Wayne Usry officiating.

Woody was born in Augusta, GA to the late Lois Keel Derminio and Woodrow Keel. He retired from the Medical College of Georgia/Physical Plant after 30 years of employment as a Maintenance Supervisor.

He loved fishing, camping, and mountain trips. Woody was also known for his love of woodworking and left many treasures to his family.

He was a member of the Shade Tree "A" Car Club and REACT (Radio Emergency Associated Citizens Team) and an active member of Silvercrest Baptist Church of Augusta.

He was a loving and caring husband, father, and papa. He was preceded in death by his son Paul Keel and brother David Keel.

In addition to his loving wife of 61 years, Sandra, he is survived by his sons Scott (Tammy) Keel, and Keith (Dana) Keel; three grandchildren, Scott Keel Jr (Jayme), Tiffany Morris (Sims), and Madison Keel; three great-granddaughters, Ryleigh, EJ and Parker; three sisters, Jean Brown, Janice Helton and Julie Thigpen.

At the request of the family, memorial contributions may be made to the Silvercrest Baptist Church of Augusta in lieu of flowers.

After the graveside service, family and friends will gather at the home of Sandra Keel for visitation.
